Essay Questions

Please answer the questions below thoughtfully and thoroughly on a separate sheet of paper.

1. Please describe a time when you have felt disconnected and how you took action to make a change.
2. Please describe how you feel youth can make a difference on a local, statewide, or national level.
3. If you could talk to our president, what would you tell him about youth in your community?
4. In what ways will your participation add to the value of the conference for others?
5. How will you take what you learn about the California Coalition for Youth back to your local community?

Important! If you have not yet registered for the conference, please do as soon as possible! We will not be providing free registrations to selected scholarship winners. If you do receive a scholarship, we will provide you/your organization with the funds as a reimbursement after your participation in Taking Action 2012.
